

1. Describe a successful community initiative, project or enterprise that you have encountered. Describe what social, economic, political or cultural issue the initiative addresses, and why in your opinion, it is a success. How should we measure success or failure, in your opinion? You can relate to a project, scheme or endeavor in any area you choose, covering any social, geographic or cultural context. Please describe the achievements of the initiative, and suggestions for improvement, if relevant. (800 words maximum)